Staff meeting.

We had a meeting on the Soviet note in my office with Messrs. Perkins, Jessup, Bohlen, Barbour, Nitze, Tufts, Ferguson, Lewis and Laukhuff.

I went to a luncheon of the Psychological Strategy Board at CIA, and afterwards was given a two-hour briefing by the staff of the Board.

This afternoon, Jack Bingham briefed me on the Technical Cooperation Administration.

We later met in the Secretary's office for a further discussion of the treatment to be accorded the Soviet note.

Frank Wisner stopped for me, and we rode home together, where we had a discussion of [redacted] matters of mutual interest.

Alice and Dean came for dinner.
